Case No. SACV06-749 CJC (RNBx)

ARGENT MORTGAGE COMPANY,
ELC'S AND TEAM RAHAL, INC.'S
COMPLAINT FOR
DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF
NON-INFRINGEMENT

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff Argent Mortgage Company, LLC ("Plaintiff Argent") and Plaintiff Team Rahal, Inc. ("Plaintiff Team Rahal") (hereinafter collectively the "Plaintiffs"), for their Complaint for Declaratory Judgment in this action, allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1
2 1. This is an action for declaratory judgment of non-infringement of 3 copyrights registered under United States Registration No. Vau-564-275. The 4 action arises under The Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and
5 2202, and the copyright laws of the United States, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.

6 2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
7 §§ 1331 and 1338.

8 3. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a 9 substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the infringement claims of 10 Defendant Edward McCain ("Defendant") occurred in this judicial district. Further, 11 Defendant entered into an agreement related to the subject matter of the claims and 12 the copyrights of Registration No. Vau-564-275 in this judicial district.

13 THE PARTIES

14 4. Plaintiff Argent is a California limited liability company with its 15 principal place of business at 3 Park Plaza, 19th Floor, Irvine, California 92614.

16 5. Plaintiff Team Rahal is an Ohio corporation with its principal place of 17 business at 4601 Lyman Drive, Hilliard, Ohio 43026.

18 6. On information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of the United States
19 of America, having a place of business at 211 S. 4th Avenue, Tucson, Arizona 20 85701.

21
22 FACTS

23 7. Plaintiff Argent is one of the fastest-growing, wholesale mortgage
24 companies in the United States.

25 8. Plaintiff Team Rahal is a corporation established by three-time CART
26 champion Bobby Rahal to manage and operate an Indy Racing Team.

27 ///

28 ///

1 9. Plaintiff Argent entered into a sponsorship agreement with Plaintiff
2 Team Rahal, which agreement provided that Plaintiff Argent would sponsor certain 3 drivers of Plaintiff Team Rahal's Indy Racing Team.

4 10. Defendant is a photographer who, on or about November 13 and 14,
5 2002, took still photographs of one of Plaintiff Team Rahal's drivers, Danica
6 Patrick, pursuant to a contract with a third-party intermediary for Plaintiff Argent's
7 use of such photographs for marketing and publicity (the "Photographs").

8 11. Defendant registered the copyrights in the Photographs with the United 9 States Copyright Office under a single registration, which issued under registration
10 number Vau-564-275 (hereinafter the "Registered Copyright").

11 12. Defendant has informed Plaintiffs that Plaintiffs' use of certain 12 Photographs purportedly infringe Defendant's Registered Copyright.

13 13. Defendant has informed Plaintiffs that Plaintiffs are liable for alleged 14 infringement of Defendant's Registered Copyright as a result of uses of certain 15 Photographs by third parties.

16 14. Plaintiffs deny that they have infringed, or are infringing, Defendant's 17 Registered Copyright.

18 15. Plaintiffs deny that they are liable for any alleged infringement of 19 Defendant's Registered Copyright resulting from uses of certain Photographs by 20 third parties.

21 16. Defendant has threatened to commence legal action against Plaintiffs.

22 17. The parties have attempted to resolve the dispute amicably. However, 23 no mutually acceptable resolution has been reached. As a result of the threats of 24 impending litigation, Plaintiffs are faced with the constant uncertainty of costly
25 litigation. There is, therefore, an actual case and controversy between the parties.

AS AND FOR

THE COUNTERCLAIMS FOR COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

Counterclaimant Edward McCain ("Counterclaimant"), for his complaint for copyright infringement against Counterclaim Defendants Team Rahal, Inc. ("Team Rahal"), Rahal Letterman Racing, LLC ("Rahal Letterman") and Argent Mortgage Company, LLC ("Argent") (collectively, "Counterclaim Defendants"), hereby alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Counterclaimant is a prominent commercial photographer whose photography business is located in Tucson, Arizona. In or about November 2002, McCain engaged in a photography session with a then-unknown racing car driver

1 named Danica Patrick. The McCain photographs of Danica Patrick were registered
2 with the U.S. Copyright office and were granted a registration # VAU-564-275 (the 3 "Photographs").

4 2. Upon information and belief Counterclaim Defendants came to possess
5 the Photographs by receiving copies of the Photographs in electronic format with full 6 knowledge of the copyrights and McCain's rights in the Photographs.

7 3. Upon information and belief, Danica Patrick has been racing for Team
8 Rahal and Rahal Letterman since the year 2002. The buzz surrounding Danica
9 Patrick began after the 2004 IndyCar racing season when Team Rahal and Rahal
10 Letterman announced that Patrick would be racing in the IRL IndyCar Series during 11 the 2005 season. On May 29, 2005 Danica Patrick erupted onto the racing scene and 12 quickly became an international media sensation after she became the first woman
13 ever to lead the Indianapolis 500 over its 89-year race history at the age of 23. Patrick
14 subsequently posted the highest ever finish for a female driver in an Indianapolis 500
15 by placing fourth that day, which topped Janet Guthrie's ninth place finish in 1978.

16 4. Counterclaim Defendants, in and around the time that Danica Patrick 17 gained notoriety as a popular sports figure, began a lucrative and national 18 sponsorship campaign featuring Patrick. Counterclaim Defendants, individually or in 19 concert, reproduced at least 19 of the Photographs of Danica Patrick by Edward 20 McCain in various and numerous media including print advertisement, promotional 21 materials, souvenir programs, media guides in print and electronic formats, so-called 22 "hero-cards", t-shirts, electronic press kits, websites and various electronic media, 23 including the Internet. Further, Counterclaim Defendants distributed and caused to 24 be published Photographs by various media outlets such as People Magazine, 25 Magazine, Indy Men's Magazine, USA Today and other third parties for 26 reproduction in print and electronic media as part of a massive public relations
27 campaign to promote Danica Patrick, Team Rahal, Rahal Letterman and Argent (a 28 major sponsor featured prominently in the Photographs), as well as other third party

1 sponsors, including Norwalk Furniture, Pioneer Electronics and Toyota Motors.
2 Copies of the Photographs distributed by Counterclaim Defendants to media for 3 purposes of promoting Counterclaim Defendants enterprises through publicity
4 appeared on countless websites. All reproductions by Counterclaim Defendants were 5 undertaken without the permission of and in wanton disregard of Counterclaimant's
6 rights in the Photographs.

7 5. Upon information and belief, Counterclaim Defendants are sophisticated
8 and experienced corporations engaged in multimillion dollar marketing campaigns
9 and were either aware that they did not have any rights to reproduce the Photographs 10 or did not take the reasonable steps necessary to determine whether they had rights to 11 exploit the Photographs. Furthermore, upon information and belief, the actions of 12 Counterclaim Defendants have caused and constitute over 100 known acts of 13 copyright infringement relating to the Photographs.

14 6. On or about June 1, 2005 and again on or about August 10, 2005,
15 Counterclaimant delivered by registered mail cease and desist letters upon 16 Counterclaim Defendants providing notification that Counterclaim Defendants'
17 numerous reproductions of the Photographs violated Counterclaimant's copyrights in 18 the Photographs. Following such notice, Counterclaim Defendants ceased further 19 unauthorized reproduction and distribution of the Photographs. Rahal Letterman has 20 admitted that it had widely distributed the Photographs to third parties for 21 promotional uses in all media throughout the period beginning in 2003 through in or 22 about June, 2005.

23 JURISDICTIONAL ALLEGATION

24 7. Counterclaimant denies that the Court has original jurisdiction over this 25 action. However, should the Court deem jurisdiction is proper, Counterclaimant
26 alleges the Counterclaims set forth below.

27 8. Venue is not proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391.
28 Counterclaimant does not transact business within this district and, therefore,

1 Counterclaimant is not subject to personal jurisdiction in this district. However,
2 should the Court deem venue proper the Counterclaimant alleges the Counterclaims
3 below.

4 PARTIES

5 9. Counterclaimant is a resident of Tucson, Arizona, with a principal place
6 of business located at 211 South 4th Avenue, Tucson, Arizona, 85701.

7 10. Counterclaim Defendant Argent is a California limited liability company
8 with a principal place of business located at 3 Park Plaza, 19th Floor, Irvine,
9 California 92614. Upon information and belief Argent transacts business in Arizona
10 and New York, as well as throughout the United States.

11 11. Counterclaim Defendant Rahal is an Ohio corporation established by 12 Bobby Rahal, which upon information and belief is engaged in the operation of an 13 IndyCar series racing team that participates in car race events and transacts business
14 throughout the United States including New York and Arizona.

15 12. Counterclaim Defendant Rahal Letterman is a Ohio corporation
16 established by Bobby Rahal and television talk show host David Letterman engaged 17 in the operation of an IndyCar series racing team that participates in race events and 18 transacts business throughout the United States, including New York and Arizona.

19 13. Counterclaim Defendants do and at all times relevant to the matters
20 alleged in this complaint did regularly transact business in California, including 21 interstate trade and commerce. Many of the unlawful and unfair actions and conduct
22 of Counterclaim Defendants described herein were conceived, performed or made 23 effective in California.

24 14. Counterclaimant is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that 25 at all times herein mentioned, each Counterclaim Defendant was acting for himself or 26 itself, individually, and as the agent, employee, representative, partner and co-27 conspirator of each of the other defendants, individually and collectively, and in 28 undertaking the acts, conduct, transactions and contracts herein alleged, each of the

1 defendants was acting on his and its own behalf and on behalf of the other defendants 2 in the course and scope of such agency, employment, representation, partnership and 3 conspiracy. Counterclaimant is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that 4 each Counterclaim Defendant authorized, approved, and ratified each and every act,
 5 transaction and contract undertaken by each other defendant, and each and every act,
 6 transaction and occurrence undertaken by each Counterclaim Defendant was 7 perpetrated in furtherance of Counterclaim Defendants' agency, employment,
 8 representation, partnership and conspiracy with each other defendant.

9 COUNTERCLAIMANT'S COPYRIGHTS

10 15. The United States Copyright Office has registered each of 11 Counterclaimant's Photographs as works of visual arts. McCain continues to be the 12 holder of all copyrights relating to the Photographs, registered under the following
 13 entry: VA U-564-275 under the title "Unpublished Photographs, Edward McCain's
 14 Photography of Danica Patrick and Team Rahal taken November 14th and 15th, 2002
 15 at Firebird Raceway, Phoenix Arizona." A true and correct copy of the certificate of 16 registration is attached hereto as "Exhibit A" and is incorporated herein by reference.
 17 Counterclaimant is listed as the sole Author. Counterclaimant's copyrights are 18 hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Copyrights."

19 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

20 FOR DAMAGES FOR COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

21 (AGAINST ARGENT)

22 (17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.)

23 16. Counterclaimant realleges and incorporates by this reference each and 24 every allegation set forth above at paragraphs 1 through 15 inclusive, as though fully 25 set forth herein.

26 17. Counterclaimant is currently and at all relevant times has been the sole
 27 proprietor of all right, title and interest in and to the Copyrights. Counterclaimant 28 has complied in all respects with Title 17 of the United States Code, secured the

1 exclusive rights and privileges in and to the Copyrights, and has received from the 2 Register of Copyrights the appropriate certifications of registration, which constitute 3 prima facie evidence of the validity of the copyrights and of the facts stated in the 4 certificates.

5 18. After the dates of registration of the Copyrights and continuing to date,
6 Counterclaim Defendant Argent reproduced, manufactured, marketed, displayed, 7 promoted, sold and/or offered for sale unapproved and unauthorized copies of the 8 Photographs which are protected by the Copyrights. Counterclaim Defendant
9 Argent's conduct was without the consent of Counterclaimant in violation of rights
10 afforded by the Copyrights.

11 19. Counterclaimant is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that 12 Counterclaim Defendant Argent engaged in conduct which is willful within the 13 meaning of section 504(c)(2) of the Copyright Act of 1976 and with knowledge of 14 the Copyrights.

15 20. Counterclaim Defendant Argent's infringements of the Copyrights
16 caused damage to Counterclaimant, including injury to its business reputation and 17 loss of past and prospective income. Counterclaimant is entitled to recover from 18 Counterclaim Defendant Argent the damages it has sustained and will sustain, and 19 any gains, profits and advantages obtained by Argent as a result of Argent's acts of 20 infringement alleged above. McCain is also entitled to an award of its attorneys' fees 21 and costs. At present, the amount of such damages, gains, profits and advantages has 22 not been fully ascertained by Counterclaimant, but Counterclaimant is informed and 23 believes, and on the basis of such information and belief alleges, that the amount is in 24 excess of $1,000,000.00. In the alternative, Counterclaimant is entitled to an award 25 of statutory damages of up to $100,000 per violation pursuant to section 504(c)(2) of 26 the Copyright Act of 1976.

27 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
28 FOR DAMAGES FOR COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

(AGAINST TEAM RAHAL)

(17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.)

21. Counterclaimant realleges and incorporates by this reference each and every allegation set forth above at Paragraphs 1 through 20 inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

22. Counterclaimant is currently and at all relevant times has been the sole proprietor of all right, title and interest in and to the Copyrights. Counterclaimant has complied in all respects with Title 17 of the United States Code, secured the exclusive rights and privileges in and to the Copyrights, and has received from the Register of Copyrights the appropriate certifications of registration, which constitute prima facie evidence of the validity of the copyrights and of the facts stated in the certificates.

23. After the dates of registration of the Copyrights and continuing to date, Counterclaim Defendant Team Rahal reproduced, manufactured, marketed, displayed, promoted, sold and/or offered for sale unapproved and unauthorized copies of the Photographs which are protected by the Copyrights. Counterclaim Defendant Team Rahal's conduct was without the consent of Counterclaimant in violation of rights afforded by the Copyrights.

24. Counterclaimant is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Counterclaim Defendant Team Rahal engaged in conduct which is willful within the meaning of section 504(c)(2) of the Copyright Act of 1976 and with knowledge of the Copyrights.

25. Counterclaim Defendant's infringements of the Copyrights caused damage to Counterclaimant, including injury to its business reputation and loss of past and prospective income. Counterclaimant is entitled to recover from Counterclaim Defendant Team Rahal the damages it has sustained and will sustain, and any gains, profits and advantages obtained by Team Rahal as a result of Team Rahal's acts of infringement alleged above. Counterclaimant is also entitled to an

1 award of its attorneys' fees and costs. At present, the amount of such damages,
2 gains, profits and advantages has not been fully ascertained by Counterclaimant, but 3 Counterclaimant is informed and believes, and on the basis of such information and 4 belief alleges, that the amount is in excess of $1,000,000.00. In the alternative,
5 Counterclaimant is entitled to an award of statutory damages of up to $100,000 per 6 violation pursuant to section 504(c)(2) of the Copyright Act of 1976.

Trial Date: Not Set

FAX FILE

1 Attorneys for Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant Argent Mortgage
2 Company, LLC ("Argent"), Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant Team Rahal, Inc.
3 ("Rahal") (collectively "Plaintiffs"), and Defendant and Counterclaimant Edward
4 McCain ("McCain") met telephonically on January 8, 2007, and conducted the
5 conference required by Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 26(f) and Local Rule 26-1. The parties
6 now submit this Joint Report regarding the conference and report on the following
7 issues:

8 A) Nature of Claims

9 Plaintiffs seek declaratory judgment for non-infringement of the copyright
10 registered under United States Copyright Registration No. Vau-564-275. This 11 action arises under The Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and
12 2202, and the copyright laws of the United States, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et. seq.
13 Defendant has counterclaimed that Plaintiffs are liable for the infringement of 14 Defendant's alleged copyrights in certain photographs, including Plaintiffs'
15 unauthorized reproduction and the unauthorized reproduction by third parties who
16 reproduced the photographs (allegedly obtained from Plaintiffs) without McCain's
17 permission. McCain alleges that third parties reproduced the photographs as a
18 direct result of Plaintiffs' warranties and representations. McCain's counterclaims
19 also arise under the copyright laws of the United States, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et. seq.

20 B) Legal Issues

21 Plaintiffs believe the key legal issues are: (i) whether the copyright asserted
22 by McCain is valid, enforceable, and/or owned by McCain; (ii) whether Plaintiffs
23 have infringed any valid and enforceable copyright in certain photographs;
24 (iii) whether Plaintiffs are liable for allegedly infringing uses of photographs by 25 third parties; and (iv) if Plaintiffs are liable for any alleged infringements, the
26 appropriate award of damages or statutory damages, depending upon McCain's 27 election.

28

1 McCain believes that the key legal issues are (i) that this Court is not the 2 proper venue for this action; (ii) that he has valid registered copyrights in 3 photographs reproduced by Plaintiffs; (iii) that Plaintiffs reproduced the 4 photographs in willful disregard of McCain's copyrights; (iv) that Plaintiffs caused 5 third parties to reproduce the photographs for marketing and promotional purposes
6 to benefit Plaintiffs in willful disregard of McCain's copyrights; and (v) Plaintiffs 7 are liable for statutory damages, reasonable attorneys fees and other damages the 8 Court deems applicable.

9 C) Likelihood of Motions to Add Parties/Claims, Amended Pleadings, or 10 Transfer Venue (Local Rule 26-1(e))

11 Argent: Argent may seek to add additional defendants to the action who may 12 be liable to Argent for indemnification and/or other claims. Without waiving its 13 rights to do so, Argent does not anticipate adding additional claims, amending the 14 Pleadings or seeking to transfer venue.

15 Rahal: Rahal may seek to add additional defendants to the action who may 16 be liable to Rahal for indemnification and/or other claims. Without waiving its 17 rights to do so, Rahal does not anticipate adding additional claims, amending the 18 Pleadings or seeking to transfer venue.

19 McCain: McCain may seek to dismiss the claims for lack of personal
20 jurisdiction since McCain does not reside in California, nor does he transact
21 business in California. McCain may seek to transfer venue. McCain will likely 22 move for summary judgment on the claims for copyright infringement by Plaintiffs 23 in the proper forum.

24 Cut-off: The parties agree that the cut-off to add additional parties/claims is 25 August 31, 2007.

26 D) Discovery and Experts

27 Rule 26(f)(1): The parties agree to make their initial disclosures no later than 28 January 22, 2007.

1 Rule 26(f)(2): Plaintiffs: Plaintiffs intend to seek discovery regarding the
2 validity of the copyright; the allegedly infringing uses of the Photographs by
3 Plaintiffs and third parties; McCain's dissemination of the photographs; the chain of
4 possession of the photographs; McCain's relationship with alleged third party
5 infringers and with Plaintiffs' agent(s); and the amount of alleged damages.
6 Plaintiffs believe that at least 50 depositions will be required to ascertain the facts
7 surrounding the alleged acts of infringement, which McCain alleges exceed 100,
8 including alleged acts of infringement by more than 35 third parties. As such,
9 extensive third party discovery will be required. Further, Plaintiffs anticipate
10 engaging at least two experts on the issues of infringement and damages.

11 McCain: Intends to seek discovery as to the unauthorized reproduction of 12 McCain's photographs in violation of his copyrights and the unauthorized
13 reproduction by third parties caused by Plaintiffs. Of particular relevance are the 14 facts relating to the provision of photographs by Argent to other Counterclaim
15 Defendants. Depositions of third parties may be necessary to confirm that certain 16 third party infringements were the direct cause of Plaintiffs' acts and omissions.
17 McCain anticipates far fewer depositions: the acts of infringement by Plaintiffs 18 require approximately five depositions and those by third parties approximately 19 seven. McCain anticipates engaging one expert on the issue of infringement,
20 custom and practice in the advertising and promotions industry and damages.

21 Discovery Schedule: The parties have agreed to commence initial written
22 discovery in February 2007. Thereafter, the parties agree to commence taking
23 depositions in April 2007, after initial written discovery. Further, Plaintiffs request
24 that party depositions will take place after third party depositions have been 25 completed.

26 McCain's Position: McCain requests that party depositions take place
27 initially (i.e., prior to third party depositions), or simultaneously, since the acts of 28 infringement by Plaintiffs are the essence of this action and those acts by third

1 parties are entirely separate acts, which are attributed to Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs have
2 instituted an action to declare that they did not violate McCain's copyrights AND
3 that they are not liable for the acts of third parties. Plaintiffs' liability (or lack
4 thereof) is essential to the relief they seek. To require that all third party
5 depositions be completed first would be to totally ignore the underlying facts which 6 provide the basis for Plaintiffs' liability for acts of infringements committed by
7 Plaintiffs. Further, depositions of Plaintiffs are necessary to determine to whom
8 and under what circumstances Plaintiffs provided photographs for reproduction. It
9 is McCain's position that proceeding with third party depositions first is impractical,
10 illogical, wholly inefficient and designed to increase expenses and cause delay.
11 Clearly if Plaintiffs have not violated McCain's copyrights, the acts of third parties
12 are not relevant.

13 Plaintiffs' Position: Plaintiffs believe that the majority of the alleged 14 infringements were committed by the third parties identified by McCain. As such,
15 Plaintiffs believe that third-party evidence is critical to adjudication of the 16 underlying claims and needs to be discovered first to determine where liability lies.

17 The parties reserve the right to conduct additional written discovery during or 18 subsequent to taking depositions. Other than as set forth hereinabove, the parties
19 do not believe that discovery should be limited to or focused upon particular issues.
20 See Proposed Dates for discovery deadlines.

21 Rule 26(f)(3) – Electronic Discovery:

22 The parties have agreed to the following procedures with respect to 23 electronic discovery. If not already done, the parties shall take reasonable steps to 24 preserve all discoverable electronic data and media including all hard drives,
25 software, and other recordable media. Each party shall provide the other parties
26 with notice of the specific preservation steps that have been taken and assurances 27 that all discoverable electronic data and media have been so preserved in the file
28

1 format to be agreed upon by the parties. Further, the parties agree that all electronic
2 data and media will be produced on CD-Rom or DVD-Rom.

3 Rule 26(f)(4): The parties anticipate seeking a stipulated protective order
4 under Rule 26(c) regarding the use and dissemination of documents or information,
5 which any party believes is confidential and/or proprietary.

6 Rule 26(f)(5): The parties believe that the limited number of interrogatories
7 pursuant to Rule 33(a) is insufficient and that each will need up to 75
8 interrogatories to complete written discovery. The parties do not believe that any 9 additional changes to the limitations on discovery should be made nor that other
10 limitations should be set.

11 Rule 26(f)(6): The parties at this time do not believe that additional orders
12 under Rules 16(b) and (c) are necessary.

13 E) Trial Estimate

14 The parties believe the trial will take three weeks. All parties have requested
15 a jury trial.

16 F) Proposed Dates

17 While Plaintiffs would like to resolve this case expeditiously, due to the 18 scope of discovery that is necessary, Plaintiffs believe that the trial date cannot be 19 reasonably set any earlier than mid-2009. Plaintiffs anticipate the need for over 40
20 depositions of third parties, many of which are multinational corporations.
21 Plaintiffs anticipate that many of these third parties will seek protective orders and
22 restrictions with the Court, thereby necessitating a slightly protracted deposition
23 and discovery schedule. As such, Plaintiffs propose the following dates:

- | | | |
|----|--|-------------------|
| 24 | 1) Non-Expert Discovery Cut-Off: | November 21, 2008 |
| 25 | 2) Initial Expert Reports Due: | February 13, 2009 |
| 26 | 3) Rebuttal Expert Reports Due: | February 27, 2009 |
| 27 | 4) Discovery Motion Cut-Off (Filing): | March 23, 2009 |
| 28 | 5) Dispositive Motion Cut-Off (Filing): | May 4, 2009 |

6) Final Pre-Trial Conference: June 15, 2009

7) Trial: July 6, 2009

McCain believes that the trial date can be reasonably set for mid-2008 and proposes the following dates:

8) Non-Expert Discovery Cut-Off: December 27, 2007

9) Initial Expert Reports Due: February 1, 2008

10) Rebuttal Expert Reports Due: February 22, 2008

11) Discovery Motion Cut-Off (Filing): March 24, 2008

12) Dispositive Motion Cut-Off (Filing): May 15, 2008

13) Final Pre-Trial Conference: June 20, 2008

14) Trial: July 21, 2008

G) Complex Case (L.R. 26-1(a))

The parties believe that this case is not complex and does not require any of Manual For Complex Litigation procedures.

H) Consent to Magistrate Judge

The parties do not consent to a Magistrate Judge.

I) Settlement (L.R. 26-1(c))

The parties have engaged in preliminary settlement negotiations. Although a resolution has not been reached, the parties believe that a settlement is possible.

Pursuant to Local Rule 16-15.4, the parties prefer Settlement Procedure No. 3, whereby the parties shall participate in a non-judicial dispute resolution proceeding, namely, private mediation.

Case No. SACV 06-749 CJC (RNBx)

Judge: Hon. Cormac J. Carney

JOINT REPORT PURSUANT TO RULE 26(f)

Scheduling Order: January 29, 2007

Trial Date: Not Set

1 Attorneys for Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant Argent Mortgage
2 Company, LLC ("Argent"), Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant Team Rahal, Inc.
3 ("Rahal") (collectively "Plaintiffs"), and Defendant and Counterclaimant Edward
4 McCain ("McCain") met telephonically on January 8, 2007, and conducted the
5 conference required by Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 26(f) and Local Rule 26-1. The parties
6 now submit this Joint Report regarding the conference and report on the following
7 issues:

8 A) Nature of Claims

9 Plaintiffs seek declaratory judgment for non-infringement of the copyright
10 registered under United States Copyright Registration No. Vau-564-275. This 11 action arises under The Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and
12 2202, and the copyright laws of the United States, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et. seq.
13 Defendant has counterclaimed that Plaintiffs are liable for the infringement of 14 Defendant's alleged copyrights in certain photographs, including Plaintiffs'
15 unauthorized reproduction and the unauthorized reproduction by third parties who
16 reproduced the photographs (allegedly obtained from Plaintiffs) without McCain's
17 permission. McCain alleges that third parties reproduced the photographs as a
18 direct result of Plaintiffs' warranties and representations. McCain's counterclaims
19 also arise under the copyright laws of the United States, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et. seq.

20 B) Legal Issues

21 Plaintiffs believe the key legal issues are: (i) whether the copyright asserted
22 by McCain is valid, enforceable, and/or owned by McCain; (ii) whether Plaintiffs
23 have infringed any valid and enforceable copyright in certain photographs;
24 (iii) whether Plaintiffs are liable for allegedly infringing uses of photographs by 25 third parties; and (iv) if Plaintiffs are liable for any alleged infringements, the
26 appropriate award of damages or statutory damages, depending upon McCain's 27 election.

28

McCain believes that the key legal issues are (i) that this Court is not the proper venue for this action; (ii) that he has valid registered copyrights in photographs reproduced by Plaintiffs; (iii) that Plaintiffs reproduced the photographs in willful disregard of McCain's copyrights; (iv) that Plaintiffs caused third parties to reproduce the photographs for marketing and promotional purposes to benefit Plaintiffs in willful disregard of McCain's copyrights; and (v) Plaintiffs are liable for statutory damages, reasonable attorneys fees and other damages the Court deems applicable.

C) Likelihood of Motions to Add Parties/Claims, Amended Pleadings, or Transfer Venue (Local Rule 26-1(e))

Argent: Argent may seek to add additional defendants to the action who may be liable to Argent for indemnification and/or other claims. Without waiving its rights to do so, Argent does not anticipate adding additional claims, amending the Pleadings or seeking to transfer venue.

Rahal: Rahal may seek to add additional defendants to the action who may be liable to Rahal for indemnification and/or other claims. Without waiving its rights to do so, Rahal does not anticipate adding additional claims, amending the Pleadings or seeking to transfer venue.

McCain: McCain may seek to dismiss the claims for lack of personal jurisdiction since McCain does not reside in California, nor does he transact business in California. McCain may seek to transfer venue. McCain will likely move for summary judgment on the claims for copyright infringement by Plaintiffs in the proper forum.

Cut-off: The parties agree that the cut-off to add additional parties/claims is August 31, 2007.

D) Discovery and Experts

Rule 26(f)(1): The parties agree to make their initial disclosures no later than January 22, 2007.

1 Rule 26(f)(2): Plaintiffs: Plaintiffs intend to seek discovery regarding the
 2 validity of the copyright; the allegedly infringing uses of the Photographs by
 3 Plaintiffs and third parties; McCain's dissemination of the photographs; the chain of
 4 possession of the photographs; McCain's relationship with alleged third party
 5 infringers and with Plaintiffs' agent(s); and the amount of alleged damages.
 6 Plaintiffs believe that at least 50 depositions will be required to ascertain the facts
 7 surrounding the alleged acts of infringement, which McCain alleges exceed 100,
 8 including alleged acts of infringement by more than 35 third parties. As such,
 9 extensive third party discovery will be required. Further, Plaintiffs anticipate
 10 engaging at least two experts on the issues of infringement and damages.

11 McCain: Intends to seek discovery as to the unauthorized reproduction of 12 McCain's photographs in violation of his copyrights and the unauthorized
 13 reproduction by third parties caused by Plaintiffs. Of particular relevance are the 14 facts relating to the provision of photographs by Argent to other Counterclaim
 15 Defendants. Depositions of third parties may be necessary to confirm that certain 16 third party infringements were the direct cause of Plaintiffs' acts and omissions.
 17 McCain anticipates far fewer depositions: the acts of infringement by Plaintiffs
 18 require approximately five depositions and those by third parties approximately 19 seven. McCain anticipates engaging one expert on the issue of infringement,
 20 custom and practice in the advertising and promotions industry and damages.

21 Discovery Schedule: The parties have agreed to commence initial written
 22 discovery in February 2007. Thereafter, the parties agree to commence taking
 23 depositions in April 2007, after initial written discovery. Further, Plaintiffs request
 24 that party depositions will take place after third party depositions have been 25 completed.

26 McCain's Position: McCain requests that party depositions take place
 27 initially (i.e., prior to third party depositions), or simultaneously, since the acts of 28 infringement by Plaintiffs are the essence of this action and those acts by third

1 parties are entirely separate acts, which are attributed to Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs have
2 instituted an action to declare that they did not violate McCain's copyrights AND
3 that they are not liable for the acts of third parties. Plaintiffs' liability (or lack
4 thereof) is essential to the relief they seek. To require that all third party
5 depositions be completed first would be to totally ignore the underlying facts which
6 provide the basis for Plaintiffs' liability for acts of infringements committed by
7 Plaintiffs. Further, depositions of Plaintiffs are necessary to determine to whom
8 and under what circumstances Plaintiffs provided photographs for reproduction. It
9 is McCain's position that proceeding with third party depositions first is impractical,
10 illogical, wholly inefficient and designed to increase expenses and cause delay.
11 Clearly if Plaintiffs have not violated McCain's copyrights, the acts of third parties
12 are not relevant.

13 Plaintiffs' Position: Plaintiffs believe that the majority of the alleged 14 infringements were committed by the third parties identified by McCain. As such,
15 Plaintiffs believe that third-party evidence is critical to adjudication of the 16 underlying claims and needs to be discovered first to determine where liability lies.

17 The parties reserve the right to conduct additional written discovery during or 18 subsequent to taking depositions. Other than as set forth hereinabove, the parties
19 do not believe that discovery should be limited to or focused upon particular issues.
20 See Proposed Dates for discovery deadlines.

21 Rule 26(f)(3) – Electronic Discovery:

22 The parties have agreed to the following procedures with respect to 23 electronic discovery. If not already done, the parties shall take reasonable steps to 24 preserve all discoverable electronic data and media including all hard drives,
25 software, and other recordable media. Each party shall provide the other parties
26 with notice of the specific preservation steps that have been taken and assurances 27 that all discoverable electronic data and media have been so preserved in the file
28

1 format to be agreed upon by the parties. Further, the parties agree that all electronic
2 data and media will be produced on CD-Rom or DVD-Rom.

3 Rule 26(f)(4): The parties anticipate seeking a stipulated protective order
4 under Rule 26(c) regarding the use and dissemination of documents or information,
5 which any party believes is confidential and/or proprietary.

6 Rule 26(f)(5): The parties believe that the limited number of interrogatories
7 pursuant to Rule 33(a) is insufficient and that each will need up to 75
8 interrogatories to complete written discovery. The parties do not believe that any 9 additional changes to the limitations on discovery should be made nor that other
10 limitations should be set.

11 Rule 26(f)(6): The parties at this time do not believe that additional orders
12 under Rules 16(b) and (c) are necessary.

13 E) Trial Estimate

14 The parties believe the trial will take three weeks. All parties have requested
15 a jury trial.

16 F) Proposed Dates

17 While Plaintiffs would like to resolve this case expeditiously, due to the 18 scope of discovery that is necessary, Plaintiffs believe that the trial date cannot be 19 reasonably set any earlier than mid-2009. Plaintiffs anticipate the need for over 40
20 depositions of third parties, many of which are multinational corporations.
21 Plaintiffs anticipate that many of these third parties will seek protective orders and
22 restrictions with the Court, thereby necessitating a slightly protracted deposition
23 and discovery schedule. As such, Plaintiffs propose the following dates:

- 24 1) Non-Expert Discovery Cut-Off: November 21, 2008
- 25 2) Initial Expert Reports Due: February 13, 2009
- 26 3) Rebuttal Expert Reports Due: February 27, 2009
- 27 4) Discovery Motion Cut-Off (Filing): March 23, 2009
- 28 5) Dispositive Motion Cut-Off (Filing): May 4, 2009

6) Final Pre-Trial Conference: June 15, 2009

7) Trial: July 6, 2009

McCain believes that the trial date can be reasonably set for mid-2008 and proposes the following dates:

8) Non-Expert Discovery Cut-Off: December 27, 2007

9) Initial Expert Reports Due: February 1, 2008

10) Rebuttal Expert Reports Due: February 22, 2008

11) Discovery Motion Cut-Off (Filing): March 24, 2008

12) Dispositive Motion Cut-Off (Filing): May 15, 2008

13) Final Pre-Trial Conference: June 20, 2008

14) Trial: July 21, 2008

G) Complex Case (L.R. 26-1(a))

The parties believe that this case is not complex and does not require any of Manual For Complex Litigation procedures.

H) Consent to Magistrate Judge

The parties do not consent to a Magistrate Judge.

I) Settlement (L.R. 26-1(c))

The parties have engaged in preliminary settlement negotiations. Although a resolution has not been reached, the parties believe that a settlement is possible.

Pursuant to Local Rule 16-15.4, the parties prefer Settlement Procedure No. 3, whereby the parties shall participate in a non-judicial dispute resolution proceeding, namely, private mediation.

Case No. SACV 06-749 CJC (RNBx)

Judge: Hon. Cormac J. Carney

PLAINTIFF ARGENT MORTGAGE
 COMPANY'S RULE 26(a)(1)
 INITIAL DISCLOSURES

Scheduling Order: January 29, 2007

Trial Date: Not Set

19 Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant Argent Mortgage Company, LLC
 20 ("Argent"), by its attorneys, makes the following initial disclosures pursuant to Rule
 21 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

22 These disclosures are based on information reasonably available to Argent as 23 of this date. By making these disclosures, Argent does not represent that it is 24 identifying every document, tangible thing or witness possibly relevant to the 25 Complaint or Counterclaims. Nor does Argent waive its right to object to 26 production of any document or tangible thing disclosed on the basis of any 27 privilege, work product doctrine, undue burden, relevancy or any other valid 28 objection. Because discovery is ongoing, Argent reserves the right to amend or

1 supplement these disclosures as necessary or as new information becomes known.

2 (A). Identification of Persons - The name, address and telephone number 3 of each individual likely to have discoverable information that the disclosing party
4 may use to support its claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment,
5 identifying the subjects of the information.

6 Response: See Addendum A.

7 (B). General Description of Documents - A copy of, or a description by 8 category and location of, all documents, data compilations, and tangible things in 9 the possession, custody, or control of the party that the disclosing party may use to 10 support its claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment, identifying the 11 subjects of the information:

12 Response: Argent identifies:

- 13 (a) Documents and things related to Argent's sponsorship of Team Rahal,
14 Inc. ("Rahal") and Danica Patrick;
- 15 (b) Documents and things related to Argent's purported Agency
16 Agreement with Mark Borchetta;
- 17 (c) Documents and things related to Argent's alleged licensing of 18 photographs of Danica Patrick from Edward McCain;
- 19 (d) Documents and things related to Argent's alleged design, creation,
20 publication, use and/or distribution of materials relating to Rahal
21 and/or Danica Patrick; and

22 The above are in the possession, custody or control of Argent and/or 23 Argent's attorneys of record. Argent intends to seek a protective order prior to 24 producing any confidential, protected or privileged documents and/or things.
